Directors

Director

Taylor Pierce

Taylor is a Jonesboro native whose passion for the theatre is expressed in every aspect of her life. She holds a degree in Musical Theatre from the American Musical and Dramatics Academy in NYC, and is raising her daughters, Kora & Parker, with the same love she shows on stage. She directed the GCFCAC's production of The Addams Family last fall. She is beyond excited about the production of 13 and is very proud of all of the cast and her team that has helped make this show come to life. Taylor is very appreciative for all that Steven has done and continues to do to show his support.

Jr. Director

Karter Webb

Karter is an 11 year old home school student. She enjoys music of all kinds, including, not only listening, but singing and playing music as well. She is currently learning to play the piano and the ukulele. Karter also enjoys creating and telling stories. Karter's dream is to become a famous director and/or playwright, so being a part of this organization has been the first step in making a dream a reality. She is very excited to be working with such a talented and friendly team, and looks forward to doing more with them in the future.

Assistant Director/Set/Stage Mgr

Steven Watkins

Steven is a graduate of Paragould High School and a member of the National Guard. Steven has performed in many GCFAC productions, such as Beauty & The Beast, Addams Family, and The Little Mermaid. During Little Mermaid tech rehearsal week, Steven surprised Taylor, by asking for her hand in marriage. It was a beautiful moment to see a love of two people be brought together by a passion that they both hold together.

Assistant Director/Lights

Jordan Simpson

Jordan is from Jonesboro, Arkansas. He found his passion for theatre in high school. He went to college for theatre where he got trained in tech as well as stage performance. Jordan has done tech for his college performance of "25th Putnam County Spelling Bee" and a year later he did tech for the GCFAC show of "Beauty and The Beast". He designed the lights for the GCFAC production of "The Addams Family: The Musical" Jordan enjoys stage time, but loves to do tech for shows.
